To A Dahlia

---

(By O. W. Slocum, Ionia, Mich.)

In old-fashioned gardens;
Where the lark's song is born,
Gold-splashed by the sunshine,
And dew kissed in the morn;
Blooms proudly the flower,
Of coloring so rare;
'Tis the glorious Dahlia
With which none can compare.

Where the rose shades of dawn,
And the violet of night,
Blend to each golden heart,
Like a chalice for light,
Each flower-face tinted,
By the Master on High;
With prismatic colors,
From a rainbow-decked sky.

Many times there are souls,
When the day's toil is o'er,
Seeking courage and rest,
To face duty once more;
Find that cares fade away,
Where Dahlias are growing,
In old-fashioned gardens,
With lovely blooms showing.
